Sarah Wingfield.
7. Richard Hall (b. Eng. 1600-....1688) m.
Elizabeth Wingfield.

Richard Hall was an early settler on the Octorara in Maryland, and is believed to have patented a tract of land called "Mt. Welcome" in what is now Cecil Co., in 1640. His dwelling house was built of brick brought from England and landed from scows at the mouth of the Octorara. A portion of the original building was still standing in 1881.

Elihu Hall (1723-1790) was a conspicuous patriot during the Revolution. He was active in equipping troops and served as Lieut. Col. of a Maryland Regiment. His home, "Mt. Welcome" was a refuge for Whigs and there General Lafayette was entertained by him.

7. David Perkins (Feb. 28, 1654-Oct. 1, 1736) m. abt. 1675,
Elizabeth Brown (1st w.) (June 17, 1654-bef. 1699).
8. Abraham Perkins (abt. 1619-Aug. 31, 1683) m. abt. 1638,
Mary Wise (....1620-May 29, 1706).

Abraham Perkins was admitted freeman in Hampton, New Hampshire, May 13, 1640. He was Marshal in 1654 and was often employed in business for the town. He was a fine penman and his handwriting is remarkably neat and legible. His will is dated August 22, 1683, probated September 18, 1683.

Nathaniel Perkins (1753-1812) enlisted in Rochester, N. H., in 1775 and served eight months as private in Capt. Jonathan Wentworth's Co., Col. Enoch Poor's Regt., New Hampshire Militia. He enlisted in December, 1776, and served three months under Capt. Wallingford and Col. David Gilman; also three months in 1777 under Capt. James Libbey and Col. Stephen Evans. In 1842 his widow Polly, a resident of Wakefield, N. H., aged 80 years, received a pension for his Revolutionary services.

MARY FRANCES FOWLER
(MRS. CHARLES CLIFTON GIBSON)
SUPPLEMENTAL

67

Also, descendant of Philip Fowler, through the Revolutionary ancestor Jacob Fowler, both of Massachusetts, as follows:

2. Ebenezer Fowler (Dec. 2, 1812-Oct. 5, 1856) m. bef. 1845, Sarah Jane Perkins (Aug. 20, 1817-Dec. 14, 1870).
3. Jacob Fowler (.....1760-aft.....1786) m., Elizabeth Ford.
4. Enoch Fowler (Aug. 11, 1732-Feb. 7, 1784) m. July 8, 1754, Nancy Goodale.
5. Thomas Fowler (Oct. 19, 1703-aft.....1786) m. Jan. 31, 1730/1, Ruth Hackett (Mar. 16, 1710/11-.....).
6. Samuel Fowler, Jr. (abt.....1660-Dec. 24, 1737) m. Dec. 5, 1684, Hannah Worthen (Apr. 21, 1663-aft.....1737).
7. Samuel Fowler (Eng. abt. 1618-Jan.....1710) m. abt. 1653, Margaret (Norman) Morgan (.....-bef.....1673).
8. Philip Fowler (Eng. abt. 1590/1-June 24, 1679) m. Eng., Mary Winsley (1st w.) (Eng.....-Aug. 30, 1659).

Philip Fowler was born in England. In 1634 he came to America with his family in the "Mary and John" of London; Robert Sayres, master. He received a grant of land the same year in Ipswich, Mass.; took the freeman's oath in 1634; was on a jury of trials in 1642; Judge of Defaults, 1645; Surveyor, 1648, 1654 to 1657. He also served often on town committees.

*Jacob Fowler (1760-after 1786) married Elizabeth Ford, and was mentioned in the will of his grandfather, Thomas, as "the son of my deceased son, Enoch," in 1786. He is said to have served in the Revolution while still a lad, and to have participated in the Battle of Bunker Hill.

*Since this paper was verified the vast store of information contained in the Pension Records has become accessible, under certain restrictions, to the public; and it has been ascertained that the service believed to have been his, belonged to his cousin, Jacob Fowler of Seabrook, N. H. The family tradition of his Revolutionary service is so well authenticated and widespread that the Compilation Committee feel justified in publishing the record, although the exact details of service have not yet been found.

LOUISE AYMAR
(MRS. ROBERT VAN BUREN)

68

Born in New York City, N. Y.

Descendant of Robert Seymour, through the Revolutionary ancestor James Seymour, both of Connecticut, as follows:

2. Samuel Aymar (Aug. 14, 1801-Feb. 11, 1880) m. Oct. 31, 1836, Mary Seymour (May 21, 1814-Mar. 18, 1888).

4. James Seymour (May 26, 1752-Dec. 11, 1834) m. Feb. 13, 1775, Rebekah Keeler (.....1752-Oct. 13, 1840).
5. John Seymour (.....1711-Sept. 8, 1796) m., Ruth Belden (Jan. 18, 1712/13-May 22, 1782).
6. John Seymour (.....1672-w. p. Aug. 5, 1746) m., Sarah Gregory (Sept. 15, 1678-.....).
7. Capt. Thomas Seymour (Eng. July 15, 1632-bet. Sept. 22, Oct. 15, 1712) m. Jan. 5, 1654, Hannah Marvin (1st w.) (abt. Oct. 1634-aft. 1680).
8. Richard Seymour (bpt. Jan. 27, 1604/5-Nov. 25, 1655) m. Apr. 18, 1631, Mercy Ruscoe (abt. 1610-Feb. 27, 1664/5, having re-married).

Richard Seymour settled in Hartford, Conn., in 1639. His name appears on the Ludlow Agreement Articles, June 19, 1650. In 1652 he removed to Farmington, Conn., thence to Norwalk, where he was chosen Townsman in 1655, but his life in Norwalk was short and he was probably the first settler to die in that office. He died Nov. 25, 1655. His widow, Mercy, married second, John Steele.

James Seymour (1752-1834) enlisted in July, 1776, in Capt. Seth Seymour's Co., and marched to New York under Col. John Mead. Received a warrant as Quartermaster and served as such until end of term in spring of 1779. He immediately re-enlisted and served one year under Capt. Ozias Marvin guarding the sea coast, and was present when Fairfield and Norwalk were burned. From spring of 1780 to close of the war he was in Capt. Uriah Raymond's Co., on guard at Norwalk and vicinity. In August, 1832 he received a pension. He was born in Norwalk, Conn., and died there Dec. 11, 1834.

10. Peter Brown (.....-....1633) m. Eng., Mary ——— (2d w.).

Peter Brown, Jr. was admitted to the church at Windsor, Conn., from Duxbury, Mass., in 1662. He bought in 1664 a house and lot there which was known as "the Peter Brown place" for over two centuries. In 1676 he contributed to the Conn. Relief fund for the poor of other colonies; and died at Windsor, March 9, 1691/2, leaving an estate of over 400 pounds, quite a fortune in those days.

For many years he was supposed to be the son of Peter Brown, of the Mayflower; but Mr. George Ernest Bowman, Secretary of the Mayflower Society, has recently discovered deeds which seem to prove that the entire estate of Peter Brown of the Mayflower was divided equally between his three daughters, his only descendants.

Elias Brown (1758-1843) enlisted at Windsor, Conn., April 1, 1777, for the war; a fifer in Capt. Abner Pryor's Co., Col. Philip B. Bradley: transferred at White Plains, New York, August 1, 1778, to the Commander-in-Chief's Guard; fife-major Sept. 7, 1781; discharged Nov. 3, 1783. His name appears on the list of Revolutionary pensioners living in 1840, a resident of Farmington, Conn.
